

Dermacentor variabilis

“American dog tick”

Transmits tularemia, Rocky Mountain spotted fever, and other spotted fever group rickettsioses

Historical Distribution of D. variabilis by County – West Virginia (as of 04/24/15)

Ixodes scapularis

“Deer tick” or “Blacklegged tick”

Transmits Lyme disease, anaplasmosis, babesiosis, and Powassan encephalitis

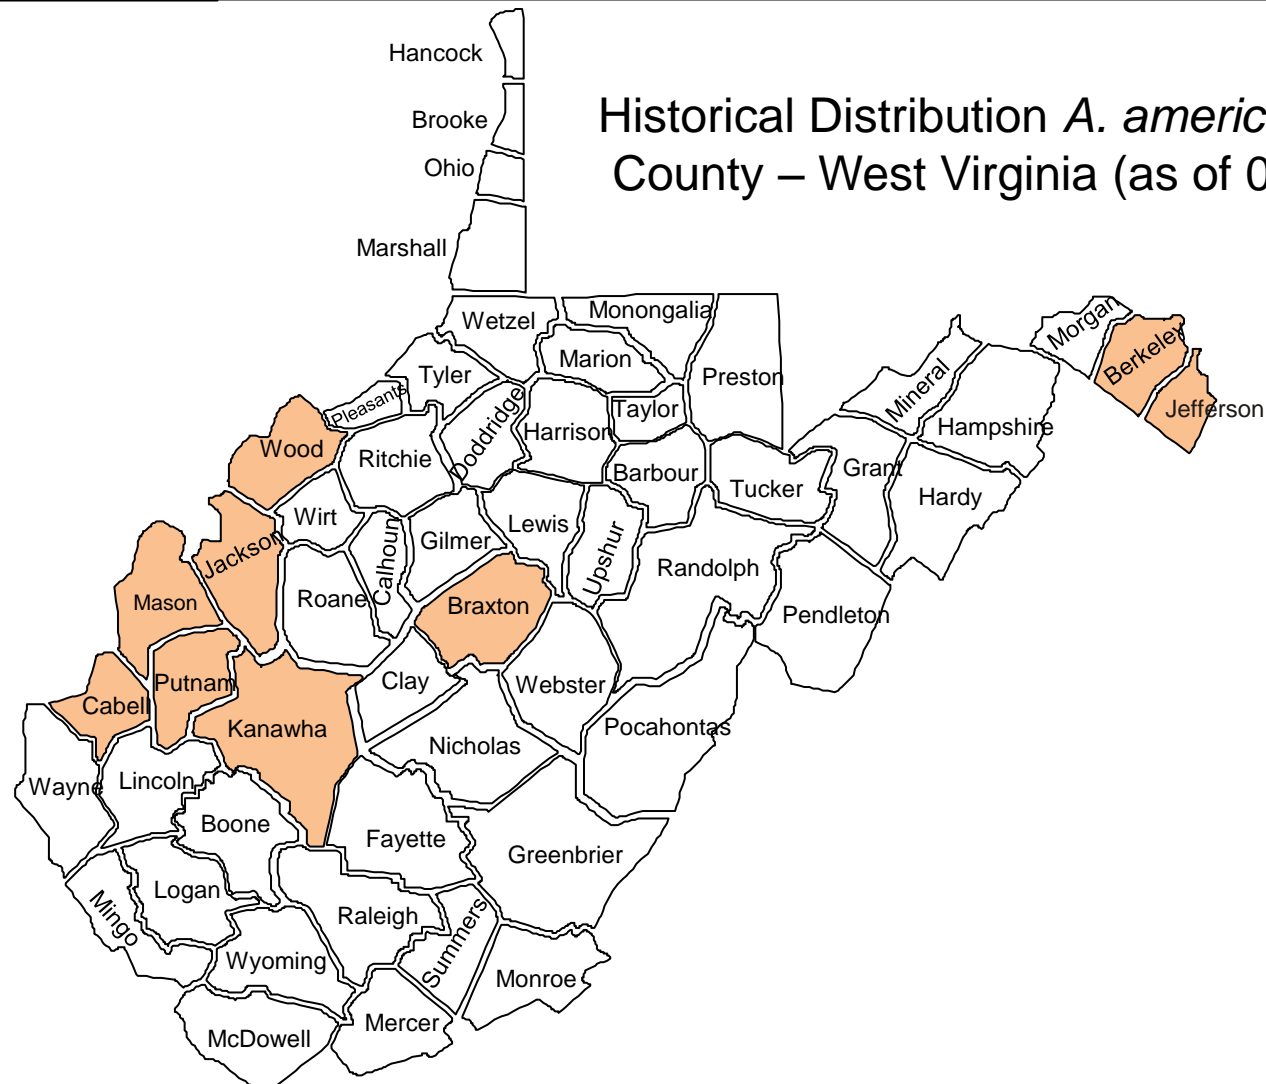

Amblyomma americanum

“Lone star tick”

Transmits ehrlichiosis, tularemia, and STARI

Amblyomma maculatum

“Gulf coast tick”

Transmits spotted fever group rickettsioses

